

ACTIVITY: Bathing

CASE: GSAF 1700.00.00.b

DATE: 18th Century

LOCATION: The accident took place in the Mediterranean Sea in the Côte d'Azur off Antibes, which is located between Cannes and Nice.

NAME: Unknown

DESCRIPTION: He was a seaman.

NARRATIVE: The man was bathing when he was bitten by a shark. His companions pulled him out of the water.

INJURY: His leg was cleanly severed by the shark.

SPECIES: White shark

SOURCE: Alessandro de Maddalena, citing Cazeils (1998)

