

ACTIVITY: Swimming
CASE: GSAF 1950.12.19.R
DATE: Reported December 19, 1950
LOCATION: Jervis Bay, New South Wales, Australia.

NAMES: Unknown
DESCRIPTION: They were residents of Jervis Bay.

BACKGROUND
TIME: Early morning

NARRATIVE: The two were swimming in the pool at Jervis Bay when they felt nips on their legs.

INJURIES: No injuries

SPECIES: It was thought they were nipped by a six-foot wobbegong which was in the enclosure.

SOURCE: The Canberra Times, Tuesday December 19, 1950, page 4

