

ACTIVITY: Swimming

DATE: Tuesday June 24, 2003

CASE: GSAF 2003.06.24.c

LOCATION: The attack took place at Piedade, Recife, Pernambuco, Brazil.

NAME: Moses Nunes de Albuquerque Junior

DESCRIPTION: He was a young male.

NARRATIVE: He was swimming with friends when he was pulled below the surface.

INJURY: Fatal. Three days later his body washed ashore with bite marks of a shark on his feet and legs. The death certificate listed drowning as cause of death but his sister, Monike, who saw his body, is certain her brother was killed by a shark.

Foto: Hélia Scheppa/JC Imagem

Monike Suellen is certain that her brother was attacked by a shark, but Cimit recorded his death as a drowning.