

ACTIVITY: Surfing

CASE: GSAF 2009.06.21

DATE: Sunday June 21, 2009

LOCATION: The accident took place in the Pacific Ocean off Shell Beach, California, USA.

NAME: Unknown

DESCRIPTION: He is a 26-year-old male

BACKGROUND

MOON PHASE: Waning Crescent, 2% of the Moon was illuminated. New Moon, June 22, 2009.

TIME: The incident was reported at 20h00

NARRATIVE: No details

INJURY: Numerous puncture wounds to foot.

TREATMENT: San Luis Ambulance medics transported the man to Arroyo Grande Hospital.

SPECIES: Shark involvement unconfirmed

SOURCE: San Luis Obispo Tribune, June 24, 2009

http://www.sanluisobispo.com/news/local/breaking_news/story/760605.html

© Global Shark Accident File, 2009. All rights reserved. This report may not be abridged or reproduced in any form without written permission of the Global Shark Accident File.