

ACTIVITY: Fishing

CASE: GSAF ND.0028

DATE: A few years before 1938

LOCATION: Italy

BOAT: Wooden-hull

OCCUPANT: Mr. Maciotta

NARRATIVE: A few years after* 1938, an attack on the boat of the fisherman Maciotta occurred in an unknown location along the Italian coasts. As a result, tooth fragments from the shark remained embedded in the wooden hull. The shark capsized the boat, ate the fish caught by the fisherman, including the fish boxes, but it did not touch Maciotta. (Anonymous, 1938).

SPECIES: The incident involved a white shark.

SOURCE: Alessandro de Maddalena; Sharks of the Mediterranean, citing Anonymous, 1938

* Probably a typo since the source given is 1938, the accident must have taken place prior to 1938.